Boy to Man

Producer / Host / DoP

Seven Network

Conceived, researched, produced, filmed and starred in the adventure docuseries from concept to delivery. Travelled the globe for two years, immersing myself in native cultures and experiencing extreme coming-of-age rituals to explore what it means to be a man.

Also known as Rite of Passage in the US, Wildman: Extreme Adventurer in the UK and Man vs Tribe in India. Commissioned by Travel Channel US as a Seven production, the series launched to a global audience in 2014, airing in more than 100 countries across Discovery, BBC Earth / Knowledge, El Rey Network, Spike TV and other international broadcasters.

Filmed and edited the pilot teaser for the half-hour police docuseries. Became its first field producer when Seven commissioned the show, responsible for story producing, filming, directing television crews and developing relationships with police and the public. Field produced the series for several years.

Oct 2004 – Jun 2005

Operating Instructions

Writer / Director

Screen Queensland

At 23, wrote and directed an award-winning 10-minute drama starring Gary Sweet and Jamie Timony. Funded by the Pacific Film & Television Commission (now Screen Queensland), the film was broadcast on ABC2 from 22 December 2006 to 23 February 2007.

Apr 2003 – Apr 2005

Queensland Escapes

Producer / Presenter / Cameraman / Editor

Nine Network

Produced, hosted, filmed and edited my own segments for Queensland Escapes, a weekly travel show for the Nine Network.

Apr 2003 – Apr 2005

[Hot] Source

Producer / Presenter / Cameraman / Editor

Nine Network

As a roving reporter, produced, hosted, filmed and edited three segments a week for the national daily children's show. Developed my one-man-crew approach: writing, shooting, producing and editing my own stories, gaining access to difficult people and places and staying longer on location.
